Patriotic zeal last year assured our Volunteers who at their Country's call that their Wives and little

In accordance with that promise the Board of Supervisors organized a Commission for the distribution of a weekly sum to each as appropriated, the undersigned and associates have performed this duty freely and cheerfully, without asking or receiving any other reward than their own sense of duty, they find themselves embarrassed for want of Change, and as Cents would answer our purpose we called desired relief, but very kindly offered to aid us in our application to you and has very freely offered his influence with you.

Dr Sir

I received your reply of the 1st day of July to my letter of enquiry of same, but it is so unsatisfactory that I am compelled to trouble you with another letter.

In my first letter I enquired of you how many bags of gold you received at the mint, and in your answer you state you received a package of gold dust of 101 ⁶⁹/₁₀₀ ounces. My gold dust was sent by the U. S. Express, and was put up in different buck skin bags, and the reason why I enquired how many bags came to hand was to find out whether any of the bags had been lost before the package arrived at the mint. My gold was also of different qualities a part being gulch or grain gold, and the other rework gold.

Now I desire to know how many bags of gold were in the package you speak of, and whether there was any difference in the character of the dust, and if so what that difference was.

Respectfully Yours

In relation to the value of the Mills of Portugal

Aug 9. 1862,

July 9. 20.

Sir,

I have received your letter (without date) in relation to the value of the Milreis of Portugal. The valuation given, was based upon an official reply of all the Hon. Sec. of the Ministry at Lisbon, addressed to the Legation and dated June 14, 1857. He says "The gold currency of Portugal is almost exclusively of English origin, made a legal tender; and during my residence in Portugal I have seen any purchases of Portuguese gold. Consequently I draw my salary in English money, computed at the rate fixed by the Department."

We are further told that the legal rate of the British Sovereign is 4500 reis; and that the gold 20 dollar piece of the "Estados Unidos" is fixed (but not by law) at 18400 reis.

By the pound sterling then, the milreis is 108.146 cents; and by the 20 dollar piece, 108.700.

It is true that my predecessor rated the milreis at 118 cents; but this was based upon silver coins and it was not then understood that silver forms a minor part in the currency; and that commercial payments were in gold, and chiefly through London exchange.

In the remark by Mr. Harvey, that there are gold coins of the Kingdom in common use, it does not appear whether the nominal valuation is the real. Years ago the piece of 5000 Reis was advanced to 8000; we do not know its present quotation, but at 5000 Reis there could be no room in Portugal for British Sovereigns at 450s.
The valuation being widely incompatible.

It is undoubtedly a just cause of surprise and complaint, that the valuation of Portuguese money should be ascertained by the aid of a third currency. But this is no new thing, in the history of Nations which, instead of ~~devising~~ supplying a coinage of their own, adopt that of a foreign country, legalize it, and conduct commercial operations upon its basis. We have therefore taken the only mode to do justice in the present case.

Wm. Eliza Whitteley,

Treasury Department.
Comptroller's Office.

Hon. James Pollock
Director of the U. S. Mint.
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir, - In the settlement of the accounts of James E. Harvey, Esq, U. S. Minister to Portugal, the Milreis of that Country were valued at 108. ¹⁴⁶/₁₀₀₀, in accordance with the estimate placed upon it in the "Synopsis" of Foreign Coins prepared by you in September last. In reply to the letter from this Office of May 10. 1862, advising Mr. Harvey of the settlement of his account, he writes as follows, under date of June 3^d Ultima: viz:

+ + + + +
" Under the head of Portugal in the "Synopsis" the Director of the Mint says; -

The Unit of value is the Milreis of 1.000 reis. Although there is a system of coinage, the Bulk of Commercial Currency is in British Sovereigns, which are legalized at the rate of 4,500 reis. Consequently the Milreis in gold is 108.146 cents."

"It is true that the British Sovereign is is accepted here at the rate stated, but mainly as a Commercial Convenience, which is now less needed and used than formerly. There are three gold coins of the Kingdom in common use, viz: 5.000. reis, 2000 reis, and 1000 reis; and four silver coins, viz: 500 reis, 200 reis, 100 reis, and 50 reis. Why the milreis should be computed at the limit, by the relative value of another, and a foreign coin, and not according to its own intrinsic weight and fineness, is for the Director to explain.

I shall adopt the value of the milreis as now prescribed, in my future accounts, but with a perfect conviction, that it does not represent the worth of that coin."

It will be seen by the table of foreign coins prepared by your predecessor that the milreis of Portugal were valued at $1.18; and in view of the very considerable difference between his valuation and yours; and the rather complaining character of the letter from Mr. Harvey, as well as the fact of my desire to do full justice to our diplomatic and consular officers abroad; I submit, respectfully, to you, the remarks above quoted regarding the currency in question, and solicit a reply at your earliest convenience, with an expression of your views as to the valuation that should in fairness be applied to the milreis, in the settlement of Mr. Harvey's accounts.

I send you herewith ^{123 7/8} oz. Gold dust to be coined. The coin you will send to my address, Care of Keller, Austin Mo. No. 53 Second St. Saint Louis Mo. Send by same route as former shipments. The lot in the small vial you will give an account of separate from the bal. as it is from new diggings & I want to see whether it is different from other.

I wrote some time back to J. Merrill Jr Express Agent, about the packages & seals on those 21 lots of dust short, and desired him to send same to me, but he writes that he cannot do so. (I send you herewith his letter). Will it be asking too much of you to see him and examine the seals & packages minutely for me and report to me result of your examinations? if you can do so you will much oblige. There is mystery about the matter?

LOVEJOY'S HOTEL.

On the corner of PARK ROW and BEEKMAN STREET, opposite City Hall Park and Fountain, NEW YORK.

JOHN P. HUGGINS, PROPRIETOR.

The convenient location of LOVEJOY'S HOTEL, is without a parallel in New York, being near the principal Mercantile Houses, and convenient to all the Railroad Depot and Steamboat Landings.

This Hotel is conducted on the EUROPEAN PLAN to the accommodation of both Ladies and Gentlemen.

Prices for rooms, as follows:

Room for One Person, 50 cts. per day.
Gentleman and Lady, $1.00 per day.

Adjoining the LADIES' PARLORS is a PRIVATE RESTAURANT, for Gentlemen and Ladies, where Meals will be furnished at all hours—guests paying only for what they order.

Guests arriving by the New Haven Railroad trains, can take the small horse-cars and ride to the door of Lovejoy's Hotel, for five cents.

BEWARE! Of a house in Greenwich Street called "FALLON & LOVEJOY'S HOTEL," and falsely represented by HACKMEN AND RUNNERS as a branch of this Hotel! said house is not, and never was, in any way connected with this Hotel. BEWARE, also, of hackmen and runners who will meet you at the depot or landing, and tell you we are full. They do so, to get you to houses which they represent, for the purpose of defrauding and cheating you.

My Sir,

I would esteem it a great favor to receive from you as soon as possible a portion of the $500. in new cents which I applied for ten days since. We use from $75. to $100. pr day (besides what is paid in to us) for making change and from the great scarcity, we have been obliged to pay a premium of from three to five per cent in order to obtain a supply. This, as you are well aware, is a severe tax upon a small retail business where the profits are light, any temporary relief which you can afford us will be most thankfully received.

Sir.

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 13th ult. with the enclosures stated.

The deliveries and deductions of silver bullion, for the purpose stated in your letter, have never been effected at this Mint and are opposed to the spirit and purpose of the Law, and liable to arrest.

Any Officer can make frequent settlements with himself for his own satisfaction, but not with a view to deliver bullion and have it deducted, one and one, to deplete the amount deposited.

As the Master of the Mint, in making an official settlement, is required by Law, to deliver up to the Treasurer, all the bullion in his possession, he cannot make a settlement of his Silver account alone. The settlement must embrace the gold and silver bullion, charged to him since the last settlement.

There should not be any real antirepoiment in regard to the Master or any other satisfactory Silver. It must be brought into Mint to show at the end of the depositor, both in charges and waste of metal. After that the legitimate Mortgage is provided for by Law.

In reply to your returned favor of the 24th inst,
I beg to say I have no Nickel in hand. I have 1000 lbs on the way, but it is a special order. If the parties are not in immediate want of it, I may perhaps borrow it, till it can be replaced.

I can deliver 1000 lbs in about ⁴⁰ days after the receipt of my order. I follow it up, at the rate of 1000 lbs every 14 days. At the price I named, it will of course duty free. It being for Govt use I suppose if no duty will be exacted.

If you favor me with an order, I will send it by the steamer of next Wednesday from Boston, in which case I must have it on Tuesday.

Yours truly

Are the persons employed in the Mint and Branches, of the United States, exempted from Militia duty? The 2^d Sect. of the Act of May 8, 1792, exempts "the Officers judicial & executive of the government of the United States". Is this language capable of being made to cover the Officers & Clerks of the Mint establishment? Dear Sir

Will you oblige me by accepting a pamphlet, mailed to your address this day. It is merely a Catalogue or Arrangement of Medals and tokens struck in honor of the Presidents of the United States since John Adams and is intended as a sort of supplement to the large work of your predecessor, Col. Snowden.

I have found it difficult to obtain any exact information in regard to the Indian Medals issued by the U. S. Mint and as I propose shortly to publish a second edition of my work with additions, I should consider it a great favour if you could supply me with any particulars you may possess with respect to this class viz the number of varieties struck of each Peace Medal - both in dimensions and metal.

Can the restricted medals of the Presidents still be procured at the Mint for the prices named in the Circular of last year?

A reply (at your leisure) will greatly oblige

Yours very respectfully

Sir - On 18th June we forwarded from here per United States Express a Package of Gold Dust (Pikes Peak). - On 9th July we received a letter from L. Monell Jr. Supt. of Kinley's Northern & Eastern Express, enclosing Assay Certificate, showing result of gold dust to be $647³¹/₁₀₀, & stating ~~was~~ the gold to be payable to his order at the Mint, & requesting us to draw upon him. - We immediately wrote, directing him to sell the gold for us at the best rates, & remit us proceeds in Drafts on New York. - We have received no reply, & desire to inquire of you whether the coin has been drawn at by him & when if so, at what time. - It may be our letter did not reach him, & we to-day write him again. - Will you please favor us with your attention to this matter & early advice. - When we forwarded the gold dust we addressed you a letter & sent with it, expecting our correspondence must be with you direct. - This delay is, to say the least, vexatious to the parties we represent, & we shall be pleased to hear from you at the earliest practicable moment. -

As the period for drafting will soon be here the inquiry is frequently made whether the clerks and employes in the Minist of the United States and the Branches are subject to draft under the laws of the United States and the late call of the President for 300,000 men.

As a branch of the executive ^{Department of the} Government, they are exempt, in the opinion of some legal gentlemen & such I believe, is the opinion of the Meridith Attorney General of this State: The necessity of skilled labor in an institution of this kind is apparent, and it is desirable that such should be retained, a number have volunteered and are now in the service - Will you please give me your opinion on the question, and the order of the War Department, if any, on the subject.

Box of 6th int. came

July 8th hand. in reference to deposit of gold made on our behalf by J. Morrell Jr. Sept. Kinsfrom Mr Morrell stating he dispatched to us drafts for proceeds as we directed. -

The object of our present communication (& we also to-day write Mr Morrell in reference to the same) is to inquire about a discrepancy in the weight at Denver, here & as reported from the Mint. - Since receiving the Mint report we have corresponded with the party at Denver who sent it, & he is also now here. - The weight of gold there was 51 1/2 ounces & he assures us that their scales are correct; - we also weighed it here & ~~made~~ the package (including the buckskin envelope, which with weight about an ounce) weighed a little over 52 ounces. - ~~try-~~ ~~to~~ We do not see how so great a deficiency or error should exist, the Mint report showing but 46³⁴ ounces before melting - It has occurred to us that the Express Company may have delivered several lbs of gold on the same day ours was delivered, and that for us may have been credited to account of some other party & vice versa. - Perhaps your transactions with the company will show. - We are desirous to ascertain just how the matter is: - & the party we represent is urgent to have any necessary or proper correction made. -

We are sorry to have to trouble you further in the premises, - but the deficiency is so considerable as to merit attention. - Your early reply will confer a favor. -

Gentlemen,

Your letter of the 20th inst. has been received. The deposit referred to by you, was made at the Mint, by Mr. Morrell, on the 26th of June last. Only one other deposit was made by him on that day and amounted to but a few ounces. The discrepancy could not therefore, have occurred from any commingling of accounts or packages at the Mint. If, as you state, the bullion was accurately weighed at your place, and found to contain 52 ounces Troy, the responsibility for the loss is with the refiner, which took charge of the same.
